Dear Friends:

It is a great pleasure to welcome everyone to the 75th Anniversary celebration of GTEV Schlierachtaler Stamm.

On behalf of the City of New York, I commend all those associated with Schlierachtaler Stamm for hosting this two-day event and bringing the community together to celebrate the rich and vibrant German culture. You have been an unwavering source of support for the German American community for over seven decades, and your efforts to preserve your heritage and share it with your fellow New Yorkers are commendable.

I wish everyone gathered an enjoyable and memorable celebration and hope you take this wonderful occasion to honor the many significant contributions German Americans have made to strengthen our great City.

Sincerely,
